

Requirements for Public Housing

You may apply for public housing if you meet the following five requirements.

- ① You are not overdue on any prefectural taxes (or you are tax exempt).
- ② If you have someone living with you, they are a relative.
- ③ You are having difficulty with housing for financial reasons.
As a general rule, applications from home owners or people already living in public housing in the area of their application cannot be accepted.
- ④ Your income does not exceed the income criteria for public housing.
(Generally, this means a monthly income of ¥150,800 or below.)
- ⑤ You are not a member of a gang or otherwise involved in organized crime.

Documents Required to Apply

※The following four documents are required for inspection.

- ① Residence Certificate for all members of the household
Must list the information for all people planning on moving in.
※This must include unabbreviated information on permanent domicile location (honsekichi) and relationships between household members.
- ② Income/Tax Declaration Certificate(s)
These documents are required for all household members age 16 and over.
- ③ Prefectural Residence Tax Payment Certificate
- ④ Certificate of Full Payment of Prefectural Taxes
This certificate must be under the applicant's name, and printed the same month as the housing application is made.

Notes Regarding Move-In

- ① Submission of Written Acknowledgement Form:
This is a document that requires you to enter your emergency contact information.
- ② Housing Deposit Payment:
You will be required pay a deposit equal to 3 months' rent.
